

PRmoment Awards 2020

Agency Advice

Why you should enter The PRmoment Awards

In nine years the PRmoment Awards have become a fixed date in the UK public relations and communications calendar, with over 1,000 guests at the 2019 awards in London and Manchester.

What's the secret to the PRmoment Awards' success? The entries. We always get high-quality entries judged by eminent industry professionals. We place a great emphasis on independent expert judging. We make sure we have a balanced judging panel with senior in-house and agency-side communications professionals.

By winning a PRmoment Award you are getting a third-party endorsement of your work, your team and your business. PRmoment is a brand that the agency world and in-house PR teams recognise, and is associated with insight, original content and educational events. The awards are also a great night out!

We run nearly 30 events each year exclusively for senior in-house PR and communications decision makers, and 50% of our readership is in-house PR and communications professionals (PRmoment averages over 25,000 unique visits on the site per month).

Key benefits include:

1. Get feedback on your entry relative to your competitors
2. Being shortlisted or winning a PRmoment Award is a massive endorsement of your work to your clients & potential clients
3. Winning a PRmoment Award demonstrates to your employees and potential employees that your firm is doing award winning work

PRmoment Awards 2020

Winner Testimonials

PRmoment is always the first awards of the year and not only provides a great evening for the team but for the winners a great start and a really good indication as you head into a new year. It's a brilliant opportunity to test the strength of your agency story and your campaigns against the best in the business.

Louie St Clare, CEO, Harvard

The PRmoment Awards are the ones we always want to win. They're the first outing for the previous year's work in the award shows so they very much set the bar. The juries are made up of those we respect from across the industry and the competition is always stiff, making them a true test of any campaign's success.

James Gordon-MacIntosh, Co-Founder, Hope&Glory

The PRmoment Awards set the tone for the awards calendar and it's meant a huge amount for us to be recognised for our culture as an agency and the impact of our client work. And The Suzy Spirit Award is a very special honour in the awards calendar.

Frankie Cory, CEO, Mischief

You don't win Large Agency of the Year without pushing a few boundaries and driving innovation, so Golin's PRmoment Large Agency of the Year Award is brilliant recognition for our great work. Not only does it say that we're top of our game, but it's also a great opportunity for an all-agency celebration. This year we toasted the award in style, with pizza and prosecco for all.

Bibi Hilton, Managing Director, Golin

No question about it - winning a coveted PRmoment Award is one of the top industry accolades.

James Herring, CEO, Taylor Herring
